WASHINGTON (AP) - President Nixon's top advisers have drafted a package of proposals, including the hiring of perhaps another 1,000 policemen, for a crackdown on criminals in the capital, where many residents fear to walk the streets after

The package also will recommend the appointment of more and our streets must be made judges and other court personnel, said aides to the President. And, it may include a potentially controversial plan to allow judges to hold in "preventive detention" persons who they think might commit crimes if released on bail.

Nixon ordered Atty. Gen. John Mitchell this week to map an urgent program against crime in the capital. He acted against a backdrop of statistics such as these:

- Major crimes in Washington during the past year rose nearly 28 per cent-209 homicides, 271 rape cases and more than 4,600 robberies, all record highs,

- The most startling increase has been in robberies. Last month alone police recorded 629 robberies, more than double the number in December 1967 and more than five times the number in December 1965. -Banks have been hit espe-

Cold Front Slows Rain in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The death toll from floods in Arkansas rose to six today with the discovery of more bodies in swollen streams. A seventh person was missing and feared drowned.

The forecast called for only light, scattered showers after heavy downpours on Wednesday and Thursday that caused flooding that resulted in damage in the vicinity of $1 million.

Previously reported flood deaths were those of:

- Mrs. C. BM Wall of Little Jan. 25. Rock, who drowned when her car was washed off a road by rain-swollen Fourche Creek in the Geyer Springs area of Littually in private contacts.

On the first anniversary of the Viet Cong's Big Tet offensive, the four delegations met Thursday for more than seven hours, It was the longest session since preliminary peace talks opened last May.

The consensus of all four delegations was that no progress was made. The two sides traded abuse and accusations, rejecting or ignoring the other's approach to the basic issue of how to approach peace. Their only decision was to meet again next Thursday, the day apparently chosen for weekly sessions.

The second meeting was "fruitless but not useless," one U.S. official said. "Every confrontation like this helps to clarily our respective positions for the long, arduous and largely secret bargaining still ahead."

The meeting crystallized the sharp differences which appeared at the first session on

Beavers Are Nearing the 1,000 Mark

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON Associated Press Sports Writer Oregon State's party-poopers turned Portland's homecoming celebration into a Sour Sixteen party Thursday night.

The Beavers, seeking to become the second college basketball team to win 1,000 games, made it 995 with an easy 83-59 victory that left Portland the nation's only major team that hasn't won a game. The Pilots are 0-16.

Kentucky reached 1,000 wins earlier this month and Kansas, with 998, is in second place.

Coach Paul Valenti of Oregon State was worried about the game, mainly because Portland had won its last two homecoming games from the Beavers.

Baseball to Discuss Draft Rule

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Baseball's hot stove league warms up a couple of degrees this weekend with a handful of awards dinners, a meeting of the Major League Rules Committee and the annual free agent draft on tap,

The nine members of the Rules Committee convene in New York today to discuss several radical changes, including a proposal to permit a team to pinch hit for the pitcher each time he is due to bat while allowing him to remain in the game.

Another proposed change would eliminate the four pitches to a batter given an intentional

The majors will conduct their free agent draft in New York Saturday, Sunday, the Oldtimers Committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America meets in New York to vote on suplemental candidates for the Hall of Fame.

Denny McLain, Detroit's 31game winner, was feted Thursday night by the Boston Baseball Writers. The colorful Tiger hurler also played the organ for the 800 guests.

Thursday, John McHale, president and part owner of Montreal's NL expansion club, sent letters to the owners of the other 23 major league teams asking that he be ruled out as a candidate for the commissioner's job.

McHale, drafted as a candidate during the owners' fruitless December meeting to name a successor to William D. Eckert, cited commitments and responsibilities to the Expos in seeking to eliminate himself from consideration.

George Selkirk, fired as general manager of the Washington Senators Wednesday, turned down a lesser post with the club after a meeting with owner Robert E. Short Thursday and will look elsewhere for a baseball iob.

Vic Hadfield's 11th goal in the last 15 games snapped a 2-2 tie and the Rangers went on to beat St. Louis. The victory stretched New York's unbeaten string to seven games. Walt Tkaczuk and Bob Nevin had given New York the early lead with first period goals but goals by Gary Sabourin and Red Berenson, who was killing a penalty, tied it for the Blues. Then Hadfield's 19th goal of the season and Rod Gilbert's No. 16 just 64 seconds apart in the third period gave the Rangers a two-goal edge before Sabourin's second of the night completed the scoring. Derek Sanderson's three-goal hat trick powered Boston past Los Angeles as the rampaging Bruins extended their unbeaten skein 16 games and boosted their East Division lead to eight points over idle Montreal,

Smaller Golf Ball Is Being Studied

NEW YORK (AP) - As if the cantankerous golf ball isn't hard enough to hit now, the powers of the game are planning to make it smaller.

However, you should be able to belt it farther off the tee and it ought to be more fun to play, says Keith Mackenzie, secretary of the Royal and Ancient Club of St. Andrews-but he can't guarantee it. Mackenzie, who holds forth in

Freehan Drives Himself To Enjoy Off-Season

By MARTY RALBOVSKY NEA Sports Writer

DETROIT - (NEA) - The Boston Red Sox, many feel, lost the 1968 American League pennant on a ski slope in Aspen, Colo.

It was there that Jim Lonborg, their star pitcher. tackled a tricky trail instead of a novice one and promptly broke a leg. Since then, major league clubowners have interceded in the off-season activities of their players and established the following guidelines:

Skiing is to be avoided.

 Any player suffering an off-season injury due to a dangerous hobby will be hit with a considerable fine.

Bill Freehan of the Detroit Tigers knows the rules, but is bending them a millimeter

He's not skiing, but he's whizzing down snow-covered slopes anyway in the next best thing-a sno-mobile. He owns three of them; one for slow speeds, one for medium speeds and one for whenever he feels like skimming along between 50 and 60 miles per hour.

The danger, according to Freehan, is minimal.

"It all depends on the driver," he says. "A careful driver will never get hurt on a sno-mobile unless he does something risky. Those who want to be daredevils are asking for trouble, sure. But I'm not one. I make it a point to be careful."

The Tigers, whom Freehan helped to a world championship last fall, condoned his sno-mobiling reluctantly "The Tigers," he says,

"are like any other big league club. They don't want players getting hurt doing foolish things during the offseason. They know all about my sno-mobiles and I've assured them that I'm a cautious driver.'

time he drove one. He immediately bought one for his wife Pat and their two daughters, then added another strictly for himself

I'm a cautious driver"

'After I got the feel of it," he says. "I decided I was ready for the big leagues." And he bought another onethe fastest on the market

He drives his black-andyellow Ski-Daddlers down the hills of Lewiston, Mich., where he makes his off-season home. Besides his own daughters, he takes all the neighborhood kids on rides with him. Occasionally, he gets the urge for a little competition and takes his fastest machine on the sno-mobile racing circuit.

"I competed recently in the International Sno-Mobile Championships in Rhile-lander, Wis," he said There were over 800 racers there Every hotel within miles was jammed. It was just like World Series week I didn't win anything, but I had a blast

Freehan says he never worries about becoming another Lonborg, even when his speedometer is buried at 60 miles per hour. "Lonborg was just a beginner on skis when he got hurt But I know how to handle my machines. It's the same as Mickey Lolich and his motorcycles. The Tigers worry about him getting hurt, too. But Lolich is like me. He knows how to handle what he's driving.

Freehan also credits snomobiling for keeping him in shape.

"I'm only five pounds over my playing weight. That's pretty good as far as I'm concerned. I'll be ready for spring training. As ready as I've ever been. The exercise I get driving my machines actually gives me a head start towards spring training I won't be stiff like some guys.

And that, Bill Freehan insists, is no snow-job. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Delay Tactics

By ROBERT SHAW LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Arkansas Senate cut off the delaying tactics of Sen. Cuy H. "Mutt" Jones of Conway Thursday and passed a bill 26-8 to authorize the merger of the University of Arkansas and Lit-

House, where passage apparently is assured. The House approved an identical bill Tuesday 90-5. That bill was read for the second time in the Senate Thursday and could come to a vote today.

The senator met his Water-

It did, and Jones, during the subsequent debate, said, "I think I can recognize a juggernaut when I see one." The following vote was a surprise to the bill's supporters, who figured all along that they had enough votes for passage, but not the number they obtained, Sen. Ben Allen of Little Rock, one of the five Pulaski County senators sponsoring the bill, said he was confident Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller would sign the bill if it was passed by both houses.

and Sen. Clifton Wade of Fayetteville, who voted against the bill, talked on the amendment another 30 minutes. The amendment would require that the merger would not take effect until the recommendations of the Commission on Coordination of Higher Educational Finance had been implemented. The recommenda-tions included establishing a junior college in Little Rock and making the proposed UA-LR a school for junior, senior and graduate level students.

Wade said he wasn't against the idea of a merger, but he said the legislature had authorized the study that led to the CHEF recommendations and not one of the recommendations were included in the bill or the UA-LRU merger agreement.

Jones called the proposed merger "a financial impossible lity unless we tax the people beyond their endurance to

"I hope Providence will take care of our institutions of higher learning, because the state of Arkansas doesn't have the resources to do it," he said.
Jones said that "deals" had been made to generate support for the bill. 'There's been more trading done on this bill than is ordinarily done in a swap shop during a year's business,' Jones said. Allen, asked about Jones'

GI Joe, the World War II name for infantryman, is purported to have been coined by Dave Breger for his comic strip in Yank, the soldiers' weekly. June 17, 1942. The World Almanac notes. In World War I, GI stood for galvanized iron, as in GI garbage cans, but early in World War II the initials referred to government issue. Breger decided on GI "because of its prevalance in Army talk and Joe for the alliterative effect."

Are Common Occurrence of paroxysmal tacnycardia are frightening but not serious. During an attack, the heart rate may be between 120 and 200 beats a minute. The cause is an irritation of the nervous mechanism that controls the heart beats. The attacks come and go in paroxysms even though no drug is taken to control them. If you can adopt a philosophical attitude toward the attacks, there is no reason why you can't live a normal life. Quinidine, an old standby, and propanolol, a new trolling the attacks. They must be taken under medical supervision. Q-What is fibrillation of the heart? What is an electric pacemaker? A-In fibrillation, the auricles may beat 300 times a minute. Because only every second, third or fourth of these gets through to the ventricles, the condition is known as heart block. A device that applies electric shocks to the heart about 72 times a minute will re-establish normal rhythm. This is known as a pacemaker. One type is applied to the chest wall externally and another, powered by a small battery may be sewn under the skin in the region of the heart.

drug, are effective in con-

All top scores aren't earned in duplicate play. Sometimes they are the result of pure unadulterated

Some five-card major bidders won't approve of the heart opening bid by Jake Winkman's pupil but it meets with our full approval. We see no reason to complicate our bidding by opening this sort of hand with a minor suit.

We don't approve of North's double. A simple overcall is better with this type of powerful two-suit hand. Your partner won't know how strong you are but it won't matter. Somehow or other you always get a second chance to bid and can take strong action then. Anyway, North doubled. Winkman jumped to four hearts. He didn't hold any high cards but he wanted to bid and it was up to West to weeks ago, his family says. take some action with his good hand. Author von Elsner has Winkman suggest a double. West can't tell that his partner has bid with no high card points at all. He also points out that a double would lead to a five-heart call by Winkman sitting East and might even result in East and West buying the contract there. However, the pupil passed.

He opened the king of clubs and continued with the ace of hearts. Then he studied dummy awhile and led a low diamond. Declarer finessed but Winkman ruffed to hold South to his contract. I turned out to be an absolute top score for our hero! Somehow or other North became declarer at four or five spades at every other table. East would open a heart. West would take one heart; then a club; then try to cash either a second heart or club, whereupon North would wind up making five spades. Winkman didn't bother to point out that if East and West had staggered into six hearts they would have made it easily. It didn't matter. No one did make that bid. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Mr. A. H. Washburn, Editor Star Publishing Co. 212-14 So. Walnut St Hope, Arkansas 71801

Dear Mr. Washburn:

Driving of the golden spike at Promontory Summit, Utah, on May 10, 1869, signalled the completion of the first trans-continental railroad.

The joining of Union Pacific and Central Pacific was an event of tremendous historical significance, as you know, and was the beginning of the development of western United States.

To mark our railroad's contribution to the West over the last century and serve as a benchmark into another century of progress, we have designated 1969 as our "Golden Spike Centennial Year.

As the year progresses you will hear of various events to mark the observance, one of which will be re-enactment of the event at Promontory Summit, Utah, on May 10.

Enclosed is a reproduction of a poster which is in the Historical Museum of our headquarters in Omaha calling attention to this "Great Event." Let me know if your associates would like one . . . we hope they will share in this celebration with us.

And today you will find the modern Union Pacific continues the job of binding together this nation, its people and industry with high speed freight service that has become known as the mark of railroad super-service.

Cordially,

EUGENE S. HORNER Jan. 30, 1969 W. Ave. B Route 4; Box 262

I see right away that Mr. Horner and your editor played ball in the same farm labor league. And of course I knew as a boy about the argument over baled versus loose hay. I didn't have the space to explain this on Wednesday as my column was already running long.

Hay-baling was mentioned merely as an illustration of my father's aversion to labor-saving equipment. I could have used other examples on which Mr. Horner would have agreed with me quickly enough. For instance, northeastern Pennsylvania frequently had summers in which there was some rain almost every day-bad news on a hay farm. The hay is cut, then left out to dry before being raked into windrows and loaded for the trip to the barn, Rain complicated matters. The hay had to be tossed in the field after a rain. Other farmers, when I was a boy, used horse-drawn mechanical tedders to toss the hay so it would dry, and mechanical loaders to put it on the wagon. But not on the Washburn farm.

On our place hay was tossed by hand-wielded pitchforks, and wagon-loaded the same way. I and one of my brothers were mechanically minded, but our father wasn't. We thought there place and his rejoinder was pointed: "Son," he said, "when you get a place of your own you can put on it anything you want to- but here we believe in pitch-

Trading Stamp Measure Not Backed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Arkansas House Public Wel-Bluff, says there is "substantial fare Committee recommended evidence" that the center, against passage of a bill which which provides draft counseling would require trading stamp firms to place a value on the face on their stamps and to redeem those stamps for cash,

The committee recommendation came after a brief public hearing in which a supermarket executive said passage of the measure would tend to destroy the trading stamp business in Arkansas because the cost would be "prohibitive."

Jim Hill, the executive, said that merchants would have to training costs, hire additional personnel at their checkout counter to take care of the mathematics involved in redeeming stamps for cash rather than simply giving the stamps to a customer. Rep. Harry Carter of Little Rock told the committee, "You just think you get mail on mixed drinks, but you haven't seen anything like mail you'll see if this bill comes up.'

Carter said two years ago a similar bill reached the floor of the house and housewives throughout the state flooded legislators with mail - about 95 per cent of it against the

Nasser Gets Key Message From Russia

The Soviet leadership has sent an important message to President Gamal Abdel Nasser on the Middle East crisis, the semiofficial Cairo newspaper Al Ahram said today.

It said the message from Soviet Communist party General Secretary Leonid Brezhnev concerned a meeting the Kremlin leaders held earlier this week on the Middle East. The contents of the message were not revealed.

Alexander Shelepin, a member of the Soviet party politburo currently in Cairo with a trade mission, delivered the message to Nasser and discussed its contents with him, the paper said. The editor of Al Ahram, anticipating the meeting of the U.S. National Security Council on the Middle East in Washington Saturday, urged President Nixon not to pursue the policies of former President Johnson in the Arab-Israeli conflict.

On the draft question, the White House said Laird "was advised of the President's conviction that an all-volunteer armed force be established after the expenditures for Vietnam are substantially reduced."

During the campaign, Nixon estimated creation of a volunteer army would cost $5 billion to $7 billion in pay raises. But he said part of that extra spending would be offset by reduced

Authority Captain of Pueblo Actually Had Seems to Be Big Issue

By RICHARD E. MEYER Associated Press Writer CORONADO, Calif. (AP) -

The question of how much authority Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher really had over intelligence operations on his ship seems to be getting a thorough airing before the court of inquiry into the capture of the USS Pueblo.

The question came into focus as Lt. Stephen R. Harris, in charge of the Pueblo's intelligence gathering mission, spent two hours in closed-door testimony Thursday and was ordered to return Monday.

The court went into a threeday recess for the weekend at a Navy doctor's recommendation to give Bucher a chance to rest. He testified nearly all of last week and has attended every session, open or closed. In addition, the court of five admirals said it wanted to catch up with administrative chores.

Harris was regarded as a key witness because Bucher testified early in his story of the capture that he had told the 30year-old lieutenant to destroy material which fell into the hands of the North Koreans.

The Navy declined to tell about Harris' testimony, saying was classified in the interest of national defense. But a spokesman said it concerned the operation and mission" of the Pueblo that Harris was quesand Bucher, and that Harris permits. was not warned he was under any suspicion of breaking any ing has been given to Bucher.

Winter Heaps Woes on Much of the Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Winter heaped more weather woes on the Pacific Northwest today as still another storm system lashed the region with wind-whipped snow and cold.

Rain washed the Eastern seaboard and fog shrouded the Middle Atlantic states, but the weather elsewhere returned for the most part to more placid midwinter conditions. Floodproducing rains which had drenched Indiana and Arkansas ended during the night.

Snow and blowing snow swept the Northwest from Puget Sound to the northern Rockies. Some coastal cities normally bare of snow were heavily laden with weeks-long accumulations. preserved by a protonged slege of below-normal temperatures. Cold, dry air seeping into the nation's midsection seemingly ended for the moment the threat of additional rains in flood-swollen streams and rivers in Arkannnsas and Indiana,

Fog continued to pose bazards for motorists and slow air travel for motorists and stowarr trevel in New York and Pennsylvania but generally milder weather ended freezing rains of the past two days in all of the East arcept northern New England.
